

Evan Weyrauch –

Evan Weyrauch joins the Caughlin Club as a current Masters student at the University of Nevada, Reno. He is getting his Masters in Secondary Education while also working for the University's Residential Life department as a Graduate Resident Director.

Prior to moving to Reno in July 2017, Weyrauch worked as a Fulbright English Teaching Assistant in Germany during the academic year of 2016-2017. During his time in Germany, Evan worked as an international swim coach for IFL Swim Club in addition to his work in the classroom. Before his year in Germany, Evan worked as an assistant coach for Augustana College's men's and women's swimming & diving programs from 2015-16.

Evan received his bachelor's degree from Carthage College in Kenosha, Wisconsin where he was a four-year letter winner on the swim team. During his years swimming in the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin, Evan was the recipient of the "Coach's Award" in 2015 and "Nathaniel Chapman Award" in 2014, the team member who best represents the ideal qualities demanded of the competitive atmosphere and the team member who best displays excellence in academics, teamwork, leadership and work ethic respectively. Evan has succeeded outside of the pool as he was a four-year Dean's List student, four-year member of the Academic All-CCIW team and a member of the Alpha Lambda Delta National Honors Fraternity.

Evan prior to Augustana coached for the Patriots Swimming Team at the Pleasant Prairie Recplex in Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin. In addition to his experiences in Pleasant Prairie, he coached and managed at the Dolphin Swim and Tennis Club in Rockford, Illinois. The assistant coach holds a Level-II USA Swim Coaching certification in addition to certifications in CPR and Lifesaving.
